WHEREAS, though the Parties have been engaging diligently in discovery, they realize that they need additional time to complete class and full merits discovery. Deposition discovery has commenced, but has not concluded. Plaintiff served his motion for class certification on November 1, 2010. However, plaintiff has moved to quash SC Johnson's subpoenas on several entities in connection with its class discovery efforts. The hearing on that motion was set for January 4, 2011, several weeks after the current deadline for SC Johnson's opposition to plaintiff's class motion. The Parties agreed that an extension of SC Johnson's opposition brief was thus appropriate. On December 10, 2010, the Parties filed a stipulation to extend the deadlines in the case, including a 30-day extension of SC Johnson's opposition to plaintiff's class motion, to February 4, 2011. The Court has not yet entered this extension, but in the meantime, the Court continued the January 4 hearing date on the motion to quash to February 1, 2011. The parties agree that a further extension of SC Johnson's opposition brief is appropriate. In addition, defendant has objected to plaintiff's notice of deposition to SC Johnson's CEO, H. Fisk Johnson, and plaintiff intends to file a motion to compel;

WHEREAS, the hearing date on plaintiff's motion for class certification should be continued in view of the foregoing;

WHEREAS, the current hearing date on plaintiff's motion for class certification is set several weeks after the current due date for summary judgment motions, and the Parties agree that the interests of efficiency are served by allowing the Court to hear the motion for class certification at least several weeks prior to commencing summary judgment briefing;

WHEREAS, to date, the Parties have stipulated to, and the Court has ordered, three prior extensions of the trial date (Dkt. 50, 52, 54);

WHEREAS, the parties believe that, under these circumstances, an extension of class briefing several weeks beyond the hearing on plaintiff's motion to quash, a continuance of the hearing on plaintiff's motion for class certification, and a further extension of discovery, summary judgment, pretrial, and trial dates is warranted;

THE FOLLOWING SCHEDULE, UPON PERMISSION OF THE COURT, IS AGREED TO BY THE PARTIES:

Class Certification Briefing:

	Defendant's opposition to motion for class certification: Plaintiff's reply in support of motion for class	April 11, 2011
